

BALL IN HONOR OF CATTLEMEN AND WIVES; RECEPTION TO THE WIVES

OVER 2500 people gathered in the Mills street auditorium Wednesday night to attend the ball in honor of the cattlemen. The hall was lavishly decorated with quantities of American flags draped about the walls, red, white and blue streamers twined about the columns and banners and flags strung from the ceiling. The guests were received by the prominent officials of the city and county, the heads of the various regiments of the army stationed in El Paso and Fort Bliss and the representative people of the city and the officers of the cattlemen's association, with their wives. Mayor and Mrs. Kelly opened the dance with the grand march. During the evening, exhibition dances were given by a number of the younger set of El Paso.

Miss Ruby Stone danced an interludic solo dance. She wore a gown of pink accented with pink silk with a corsage bouquet of pink roses. Miss Grace Wingo and Lewis Crocker danced a couplet. Miss Wingo wore a costume of white brocade chiffon velvet.

Miss Beulah Brown and Roger Brown danced the "tango." Miss Brown was dressed in a gown of white satin, with touches of black velvet and tiny ruffles.

Miss Margaret Davis and Lieut. Dennis E. McCanniff danced the "waltz." Miss Davis wore a gown of accented white silk with a tango cap of gold and silver lace.

The hall was crowded to its capacity and during the dance there was a large crowd at the doors struggling to get inside. Carl A.
